

Accelerating Literacy Growth During the COVID Pandemic

Insight from a 2020–2021 Nationwide Study

In a study about literacy outcomes during the disrupted 2020–2021 school year, Lexia® Core5® Reading not only helped prevent learning loss but also helped accelerate literacy growth for all student groups.

Overview

- 12,956 students
- September 2020 – February 2021
- 35 schools
- Remote and hybrid learning
- Grades 1–5

Lexia helps accelerate learning

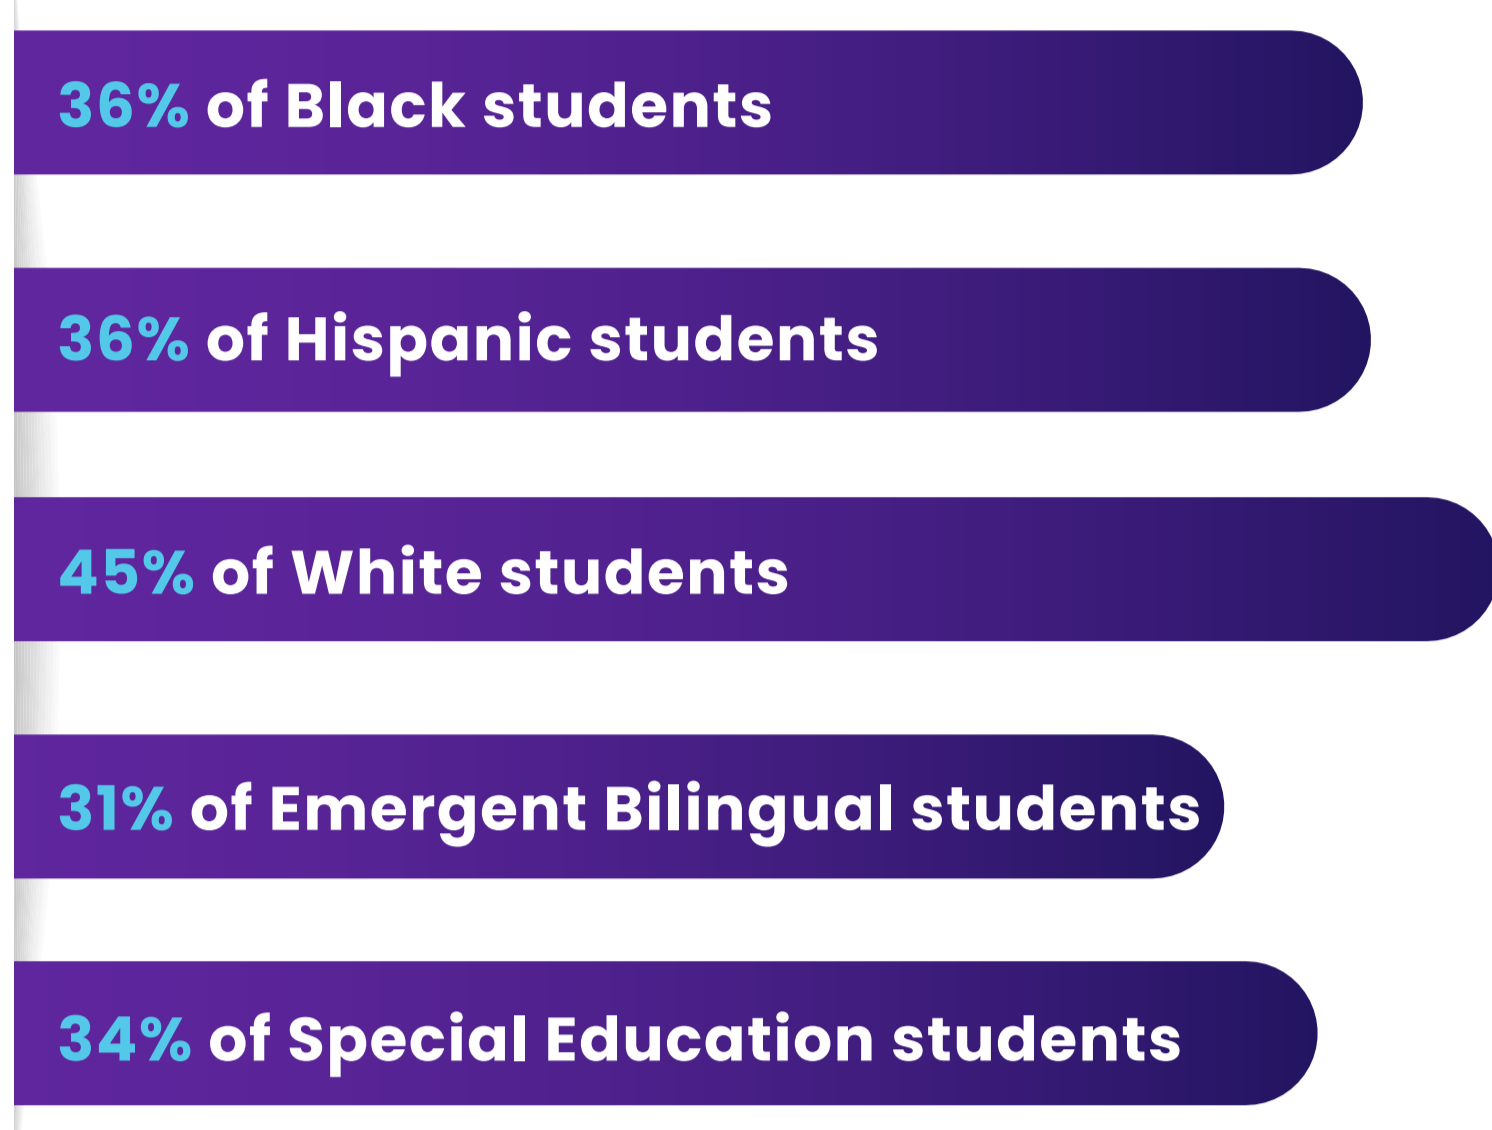

Over 40% of students using Core5 exceeded MAP Growth targets

What is MAP Growth™ Reading?
A nationally normed assessment that measures foundational reading skills by grade level.

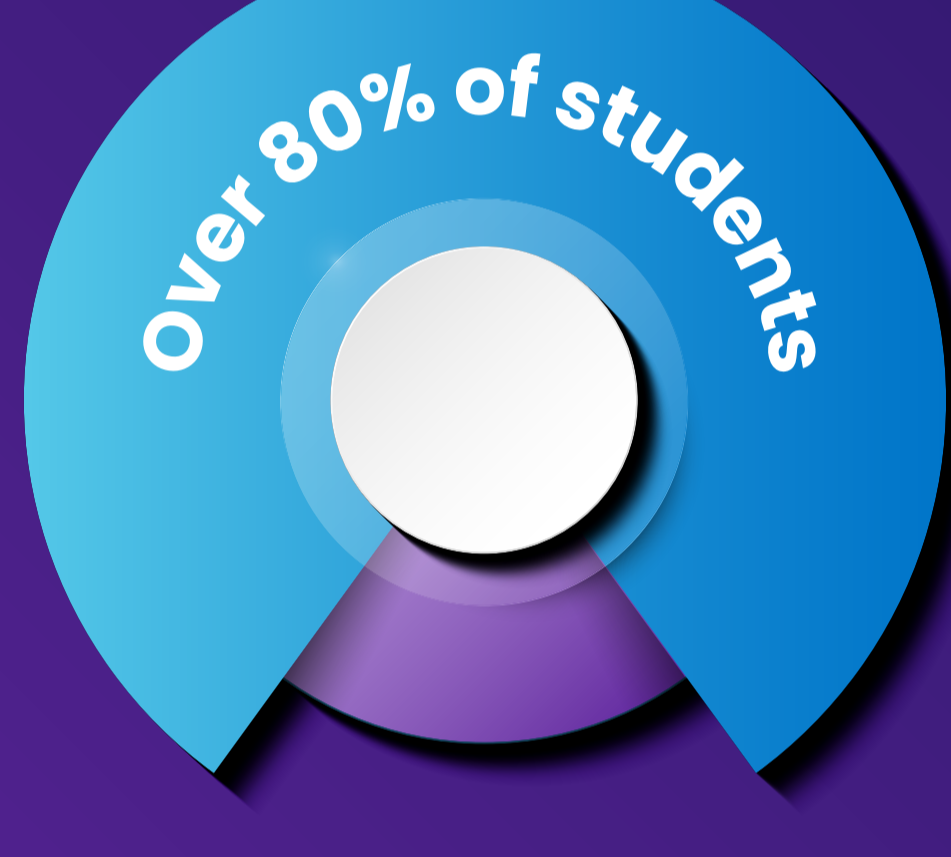

CORE5 USE HELPED ALL STUDENT GROUPS EXCEED GROWTH TARGETS

Our teachers were on fire for this knowledge. The data shows that it works, and our teachers had the data they needed with one click.

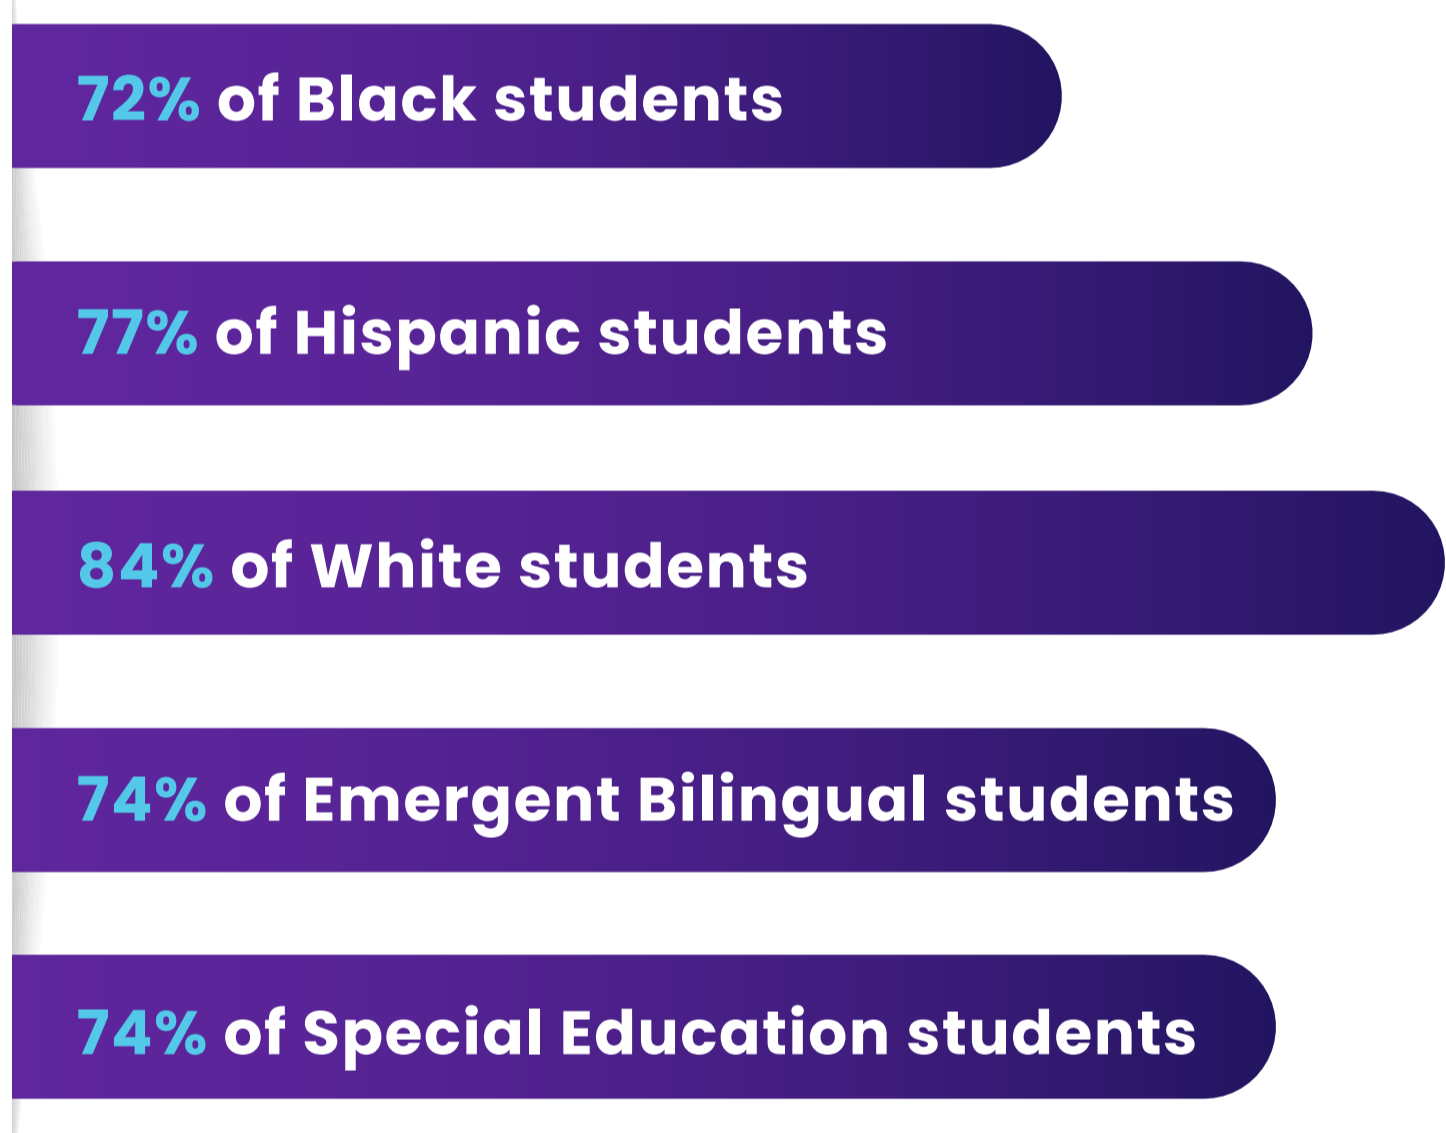

—Dr. Paul Gordon, Superintendent, Wenatchee Public Schools, WA

Lexia helps prevent learning loss

Over 80% of students who used Core5 did not have learning loss

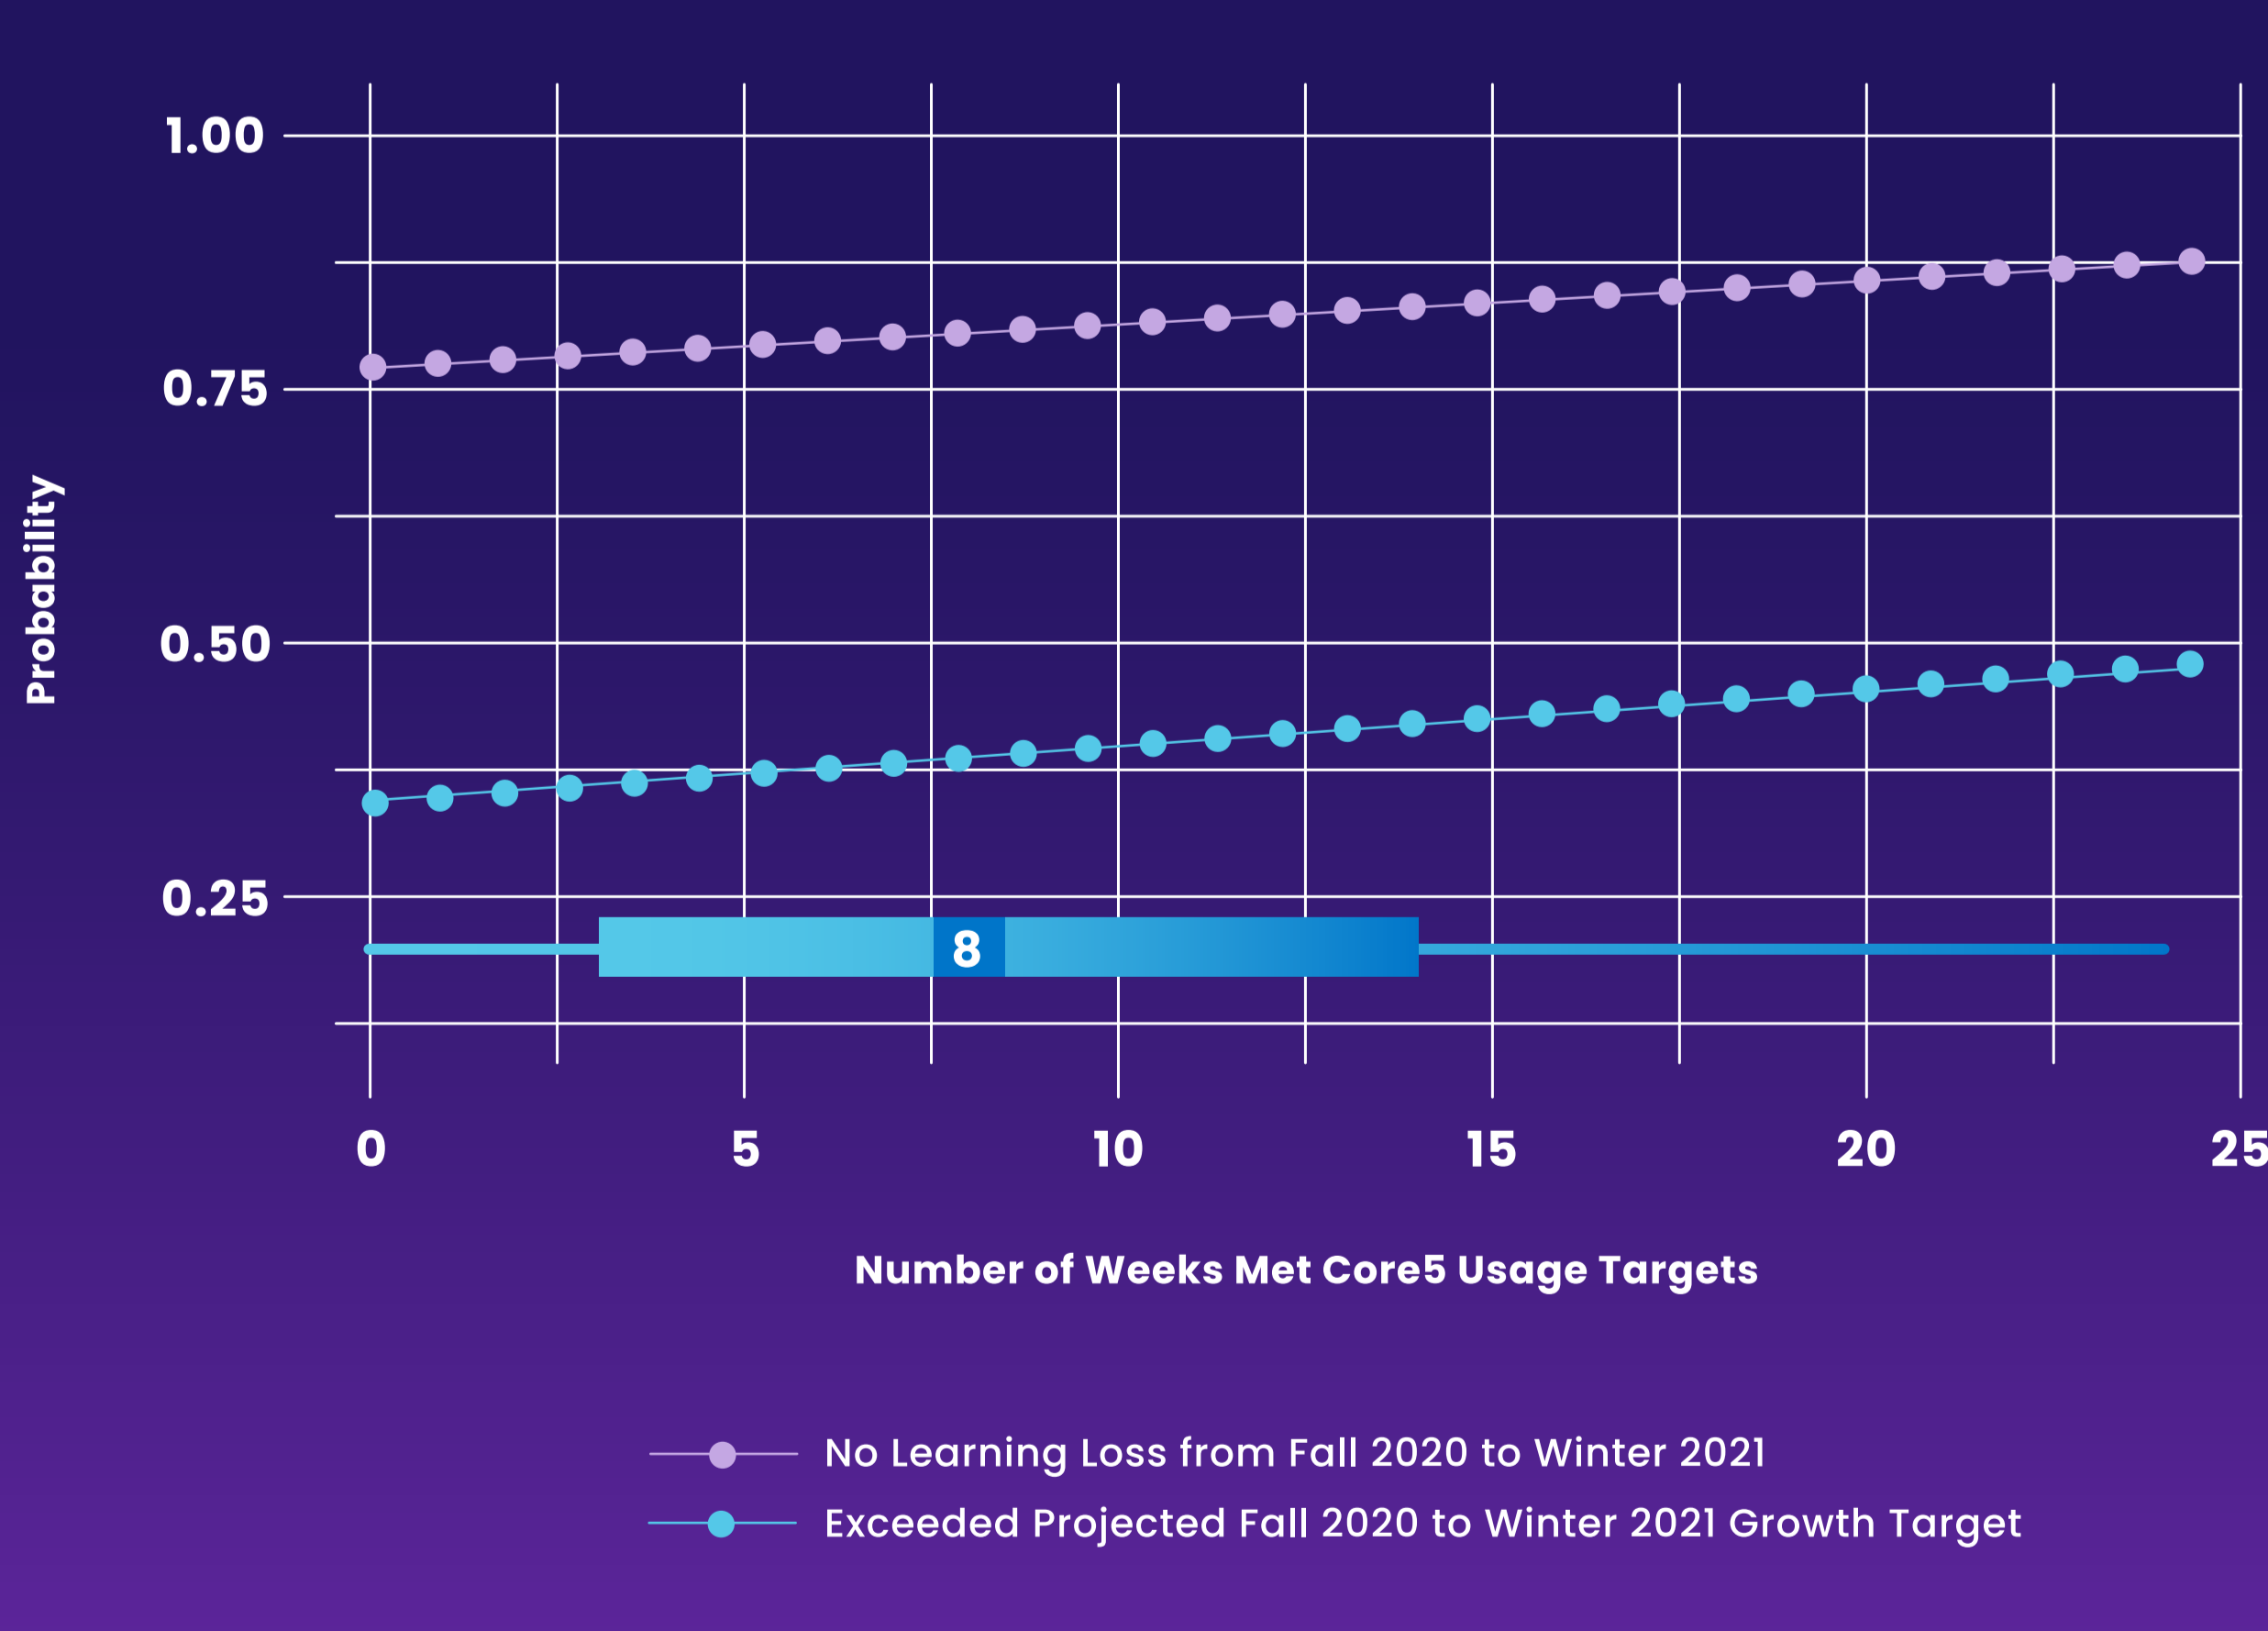

OVER 10,000 STUDENTS WHO USED CORE5 DID NOT HAVE LEARNING LOSS

Lexia was a big rock for us, it was in all of our elementary schools...we looked at the data and it is working!

—Dr. Alesia Smith, Deputy Superintendent of Learning Services, Pulaski County Special School District, AR

Use of Core5 and Probability of MAP Growth Reading Outcomes

[Lexia] gave us the capacity to continue our instruction at home. Moving into this year...we think we're going to be ahead of the game.

—Dr. David F. Lewis, Superintendent of Education, Muscogee County School District, GA
